

INSTITUTE FOR COUPLE AND FAMILY ENHANCEMENT
Kaye Thomas, M.MFT., LMFT-Associate

THERAPY INFORMATION AND CONSENT TO TREATMENT

The purpose of this document is to ensure that all participants in the therapeutic process are aware of their rights and responsibilities when entering into a therapeutic relationship with me. I encourage you to ask questions about any of these topics at any point during the time that we are working together.

SAFETY IN THE THERAPEUTIC RELATIONSHIP

Research has found that the best outcomes occur in therapy when all members of a client system develop a positive relationship with their therapist. My first priority is to establish a relationship with each individual, partner, or member of a family, allowing them to feel comfortable and safe discussing and processing any situation. I seek a collaborative relationship with you in which you not only feel understood and valued, but also feel ownership in your therapeutic process. I will regularly discuss the goals of therapy to ensure that we are in agreement, and I will work to ensure that you are comfortable with any planned or suggested intervention approach. I invite you to share with me any questions, concerns, or suggestions during the course of our work together.

Also related to safety for all parties, I have a strict policy of prohibiting weapons of any kind into my office during the psychotherapy process. If you are licensed to carry a weapon or are coming to therapy from a job that requires you to be armed, please make plans to secure your weapon outside of my office.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND LIMITS TO CONFIDENTIALITY

In general, the privacy of all communications between you and me, and even the fact that you are a client, is confidential and protected by state and federal law. Generally, I can only release records or information about our work together to others outside our therapeutic relationship with your written authorization. There are some important exceptions to confidentiality, which include the following:

1. If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for the information concerning your diagnosis and treatment, that information is protected by the therapist-client privilege. I cannot release records or provide any information without your written authorization. However, if your records are subpoenaed or if a judge issues a court order for your records, I am legally obligated to comply. In the case of a subpoena, I will contact you so that you (or your attorney) can take steps to contest the subpoena. If you do nothing to challenge the subpoena after being notified by me, I will comply with the subpoena.
2. If I believe that you are a danger to yourself or to other persons, I may contact medical or law enforcement personnel.
3. If you disclose information that leads me to suspect that a minor child, an elderly person or a disabled person is being abused or neglected, I am required by law to notify authorities within 48 hours and I will comply with this requirement.
4. If you file a lawsuit or a complaint against me for any reason, I am allowed to use confidential information to defend myself.
5. If a court order or other legal proceeding (such as a grand jury) requires the disclosure of your information or records, I will obey the court order or the grand jury subpoena.
6. If you waive your privilege or give written authorization to disclose information, I will comply with your authorization.
7. Information contained in communications via computers with limited security/control, such as e-mail and telephone conversations via cell phone is not secure and can compromise your privacy.
8. If I learn of previous sexual exploitation by a mental health provider, I am required to report it to the District Attorney in the county of the alleged exploitation and the appropriate licensing board of the provider.

9. The matters discussed during a family therapy session or couple's therapy session are not confidential as to the persons present since those persons hear the statements made and participate in the discussion. However, all matters discussed during the family or couple's sessions are confidential and privileged as to third parties who were not present in the session.

As a marriage and family therapist, I also have unique confidentiality responsibilities when working with couples, families, and children because the family as a whole may be considered the client. When working with families, I have an obligation to more than one person. I may share information disclosed to me in individual sessions, phone conversations, or written messages with those family members who have consented to treatment with me. I have a strict policy of not keeping potentially hurtful or damaging secrets from other family members who are also participating in therapy. It is my goal to earn a level of trust from you that allows you to feel comfortable sharing secrets with me privately and then working together to plan for sharing information with other clients as appropriate. Please keep this in mind as you share information with me. If you share a potentially damaging secret with me, and refuse to share it with other participants in therapy, I may be forced to terminate relational therapy. If you must discuss personal information that cannot be shared, please request a referral for individual therapy.

Clients often prefer to communicate with me via email or text message to schedule or confirm appointments, as well as provide updates regarding their situations. While I have a duty to act with professionalism and diligence to protect your information, I cannot guarantee the confidentiality of email correspondence and text messages due to the logistics of these types of communication. I will comply with your informed requests as described in the Communications Form regarding use of texts, emails, or other communications outside of face to face communication in my office. Text communication is reserved only for scheduling appointments and other logistical issues, such as to inform me that a client is running late to a session.

Another important element of confidentiality is the expectation that participating parties respect the privacy of other participating family members by refraining from sharing contents of the sessions with outside parties. Further, recording devices of any kind (audio, video, or photographic) are not allowed in the therapy sessions without written consent of all parties attending, including your therapist. Please turn off all cell phones and electronic devices in your possession when you enter my office. In order to achieve your therapeutic goals, it is essential for all parties to experience trust and personal safety during therapy sessions.

THE BENEFITS AND RISKS OF PSYCHOTHERAPY

One major benefit that may be gained from participating is the resolution of concerns. Other possible benefits may be a better ability to cope with marital, family, and other interpersonal relationships, as well as a greater understanding of personal goals and values. However, seeking to resolve concerns between family members, marital partners, and other persons can also lead to discomfort as well as relationship changes that may not have been originally intended. The greatest risk of psychotherapy is that it may not by itself resolve your concerns. You may also experience discomfort such as anger, depression, or frustration during your treatment as you remember and resolve unpleasant events. I will do my best to assess progress on a week-to-week basis, and I encourage you to notify me of any changes in your condition. If a situation fails to improve or a situation deteriorates, I will provide a referral to another professional for consultation or treatment.

Please know, too, that I do not provide emergency mental health services. I may not be able to return your calls immediately or schedule you for immediate treatment. In the event of an emergency, you have several options. You may go to the nearest emergency room, call 911 for emergency assistance, or contact the Center for Health Care Services 24-Hour Crisis and Substance Use Helpline at 800-316-9241 or 210-223-SAFE (7233).

FEES AND APPOINTMENTS

A standard therapy hour consists of approximately 50 minutes for the therapy session and 10 minutes to allow me to complete necessary paperwork and prepare for my next client. My fee for a standard therapy hour is $75. Clients which are court involved will be billed at a rate of $95 per therapy hour. In addition, communications such as phone calls and emails in excess of 20 minutes will be billed at a prorated rate. I am also able to offer reduced fees, based on client need and with approval from the ICFE Director. Please talk with me in advance of signing this agreement if you need to request a reduced rate. You may pay by cash, personal checks, and major credit cards.

Payment for psychotherapy is due at the time services are rendered. To avoid accumulation of a balance, clients are asked to complete a Billing Agreement and provide credit card information to remain on file during the time they are active clients. Credit cards will only be billed for services provided, returned check fees, or no-show/late cancellation charges. Credit card information is securely destroyed 60 days after your last session or immediately upon your communication that you are terminating the therapeutic relationship. Clients who do not wish to leave credit card information on file may elect to instead make a retainer payment of $75 / $95, advanced payment for 1 session, when scheduling the second therapy session. A $30 fee is charged for each returned check.

As a LMFT-Associate, I am not an "in-network" provider for any insurance companies; however, I will complete necessary paperwork if you elect to submit your own claim for my services to your insurance company for reimbursement. Your insurance company may or may not reimburse for my services provided under supervision. Please be aware that insurance companies require a mental health diagnosis to be assigned to a single, identified client to consider psychotherapy to be medically necessary, and thus eligible for reimbursement. If my professional assessment does not determine a mental health disorder to be present or relevant to the therapy provided, I will not be able to complete a claim for your insurance company. Furthermore, I will review with you any diagnosis assigned to you to be submitted to your insurance company. Upon request, I will provide a detailed monthly invoice for services, including relevant codes your insurance company would require and complete your insurance company's claim form. The first page of the claim form is completed at no charge; more complex forms are completed at $20/page.

Sessions are by appointment only. If you must cancel or reschedule an appointment, I require at least 24 hours notice so that I may have the opportunity to schedule another client during the appointment time. Clients who do not provide 24 hours notice that they will not be attending a scheduled session will be billed the full fee for the therapy hour.

At various points in treatment, we will discuss progress that has been made, remaining goals, and the expected time frame for treatment. Your participation in therapeutic services, though, is completely voluntary and you may stop at any time.

RECORDS

All of our communications become part of a clinical record, which is maintained in the form of paper and/or electronic files once the clinical services are complete. Texas law requires that I maintain appropriate treatment records for at least six years from the last date of service for adult clients. I will not release any information about you to anyone without your written consent unless required to do so by law.

As a client, you have the right to obtain a copy of your records upon submission of a written authorization. Texas law requires that all requests to review or obtain copies of your records must be made in writing. The records of your treatment will contain confidential information about you and the information in the records can be misinterpreted or upsetting to lay readers. If you request a copy of your records in writing, I will provide them to you upon payment of the records fee unless I believe that releasing the records would endanger your life or physical safety, or the life/physical safety of another person. If I believe that I must withhold the records due to a situation involving life or physical safety endangerment, I will write you a letter to explain my reasons for withholding the records.

For family or couple's therapy, the family's or couple's relationship is as much of a "client" as the individual parties. For that reason, I will not release my records of couples counseling unless both of the individuals pay the records fee, sign an Authorization allowing for the release of records, or present me with a Court Order requiring that the records be released. In either event, I will provide a complete copy of my records to both members of the couple, or to all adult members of the family upon receipt of the Authorization or Court Order, and payment of the records fee.

I have determined that a reasonable, cost-based fee for providing a copy of your records will be $30.00 for files that are less than 100 pages. For any file that is more than 100 pages, the fee will be $60.00. The actual cost of shipping or mailing will be extra. Generally, I am not required to provide copies of requested records until the records fee is paid.

LITIGATION POLICIES AND FEES FOR COURT-RELATED SERVICES

I became a therapist based on a genuine desire to help people and families be healthy both individually and as a whole. I do not find it therapeutically helpful in most cases for me to be involved in any way in client litigation. This is especially true regarding psychotherapy for children and adolescents due to the need for minors to trust the safety and privacy of their therapeutic relationship. If during the course of therapy, you become involved in any legal proceeding including but not limited to divorce, custody dispute, or personal injury suit, you agree that you nor your attorneys, nor anyone acting on your behalf will subpoena records from my office or subpoena me to testify in court, in a deposition, or in any legal proceeding. By your signature below, you acknowledge your understanding of this litigation policy and you agree to abide by it.

I will comply with lawfully issued subpoenas. The hourly fee for my time will be $150 per hour and the hourly fee for my supervisor, Dr. Becky Davenport, will be $250. You also agree by your signature below to make the required payment for the time I must spend dealing with your litigation. If I am subpoenaed to provide records or testimony in violation of this agreement and against my stated wishes, you also agree to pay for all my professional time, as well as any involvement required by my Supervisor, Dr. Becky Davenport, including but not limited to preparation, record review, transportation charges (door-to-door), waiting time, and time spent testifying in court or deposition regardless of which party issued the subpoena or requires me to testify.

If I am required to testify in court or give a deposition in Bexar County, I will require a retainer in the amount of $1,400 (6 hours at $150 per hour for my time and 2 hours at $250 per hour for Dr. Becky Davenport), which will include preparation time, travel time (door-to-door), and attendance at any legal proceeding. If I am required to testify in court or give a deposition outside Bexar County, I will require a retainer in the amount of $1,700 (8 hours at $150 per hour for my time and 2 hours at $250 per hour for Dr. Becky Davenport), which will include preparation time, travel time (door-to-door), and attendance at any legal proceeding. By your signature below, you agree to pay the applicable retainer no later than 48 hours prior to the litigation event.

If the testimony or deposition exceeds 6 hours in Bexar County or 8 hours outside Bexar County, your credit card on file will be charged $150 per hour for every hour spent at any legal proceeding, including court or deposition. By your signature below, you agree that I will issue an itemized statement showing the breakdown of time and you further agree to that the amount of the invoice can be charged to the credit card on file. When I go to court or give a deposition, I have to clear my schedule and not see other clients so there is a 48-hour cancellation policy for court and depositions. For example, if the court appearance or deposition is scheduled for a Monday, I must be notified of any cancellation by Noon on the Thursday before. Any cancellations that occur within that 48-hour time frame are NON-REFUNDABLE. I will accept credit card, money order or cashier's check for payment of fees related to court appearances or deposition. NO PERSONAL CHECKS WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR THESE SERVICES. All payments are due 48 hours prior to the scheduled court appearance or deposition. By your signature below, you expressly authorize me to charge the credit card on file for any fees related to litigation and court appearances unless you notify me that you intend to make payment by cash, money order or cashier's check. Finally, if I am subpoenaed to provide records or testimony in violation of this agreement and against my stated wishes, I reserve the right to terminate our professional, therapeutic relationship immediately and refer you to other mental health providers.

I will NOT perform social studies or custody evaluations. I will NOT provide recommendations regarding possession, custody, access to or visitation with minor children. I will NOT provide legal advice. I will NOT provide medication or medical advice. These services are not within the scope of my practice.

PROFESSIONAL SUPERVISION AND SHARED OFFICE SPACE

I am a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist-Associate (LMFT-Associate) providing clinical services under the supervision of Becky Davenport, Ph.D., LMFT, Owner and Executive Director of the ICFE. Dr. Davenport may be contacted directly at (210) 602-1898 or davenport@icfetx.com. My status as an LMFT-Associate means that I have completed a graduate degree or its equivalent in marriage and family therapy, passed the national licensing exam, and been approved by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Marriage and Family Therapists. Upon successful completion of Board requirements, I will become a fully licensed marriage and family therapist (LMFT). To fulfill the requirements of full licensure, I meet at least biweekly with Dr. Davenport for clinical supervision, including discussion and direction for my work with clients. As a function of her role as my clinical supervisor, Dr. Davenport will have full access to your clinical records and private health information.

I also share office space with several other therapists who are independent contractors providing services at the ICFE. Our clinical records are stored in a common area, which means that these other therapists may have access to your confidential information. Anyone affiliated with the ICFE who has access to clients' private and confidential information is obligated by law and professional ethics to protect clients' confidentiality.

FEEDBACK AND COMPLAINTS

I am an independent contractor providing therapeutic services at the ICFE being supervised clinically and administratively by Becky Davenport, Ph.D., LMFT. She may be contacted directly at (210) 602-1898 or davenport@icfetx.com. However, I invite and strongly encourage clients with any concerns or complaints to first talk with me directly. I will make every effort to address the issues professionally and collaboratively with you.

Additionally, clients who choose to file a complaint against me for violations of state laws and regulations or my professional ethics code should contact:

Texas Behavioral Health Executive Council
Attn: Texas State Board of Examiners of Marriage and Family Therapists
333 Guadalupe St., Ste. 3-900
Austin, Texas 78701
Telephone: 1-800-821-3205 <http://www.bhec.texas.gov/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/BHEC-Complaint-Form.pdf>.

If you have a complaint concerning the HIPAA Privacy Regulations, you may contact the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, at: OCRMail@hhs.gov.

PLEASE READ AND INITIAL THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS:

I/we grant my/our permission for any therapy, testing, or diagnostic evaluation may be deem necessary in individual, marital, or family psychotherapy. I/we understand the potential for emotional discomfort and relationship changes not originally intended. I/we understand that Ms. Thomas does not guarantee any particular results or outcome from the psychotherapy process.

I/we understand and agree to the confidentiality policies stated above. These include the exceptions to confidentiality mandated by state law, as well possibility of sharing information shared in individual sessions, phone conversations, or written messages with those family members who have consented to treatment information.

I/we understand the risks of psychotherapy as explained above. I/we understand that Ms. Thomas nor the ICFE provide emergency services and in the event of an emergency I/we agree to go to the nearest emergency room, call 9-1-1, or contact the Center for Health Care Services 24-Hour Crisis and Substance Use Helpline at 800-316-9241 or 210-223-SAFE (7233).

I/we agree to pay the fee of $75 / $95 per therapy hour. I agree to give 24-hour notice for cancelled appointments if at all possible by calling my therapist directly at (210) 446-6681. I understand that failure to cancel or reschedule an appointment with less than 24 hours notice will result in my being charged the full fee for the appointment.

I/we agree to pay the fee of $400 per hour for any legal involvement that is requested of Ms. Thomas and Dr. Davenport as her clinical supervisor, including but not limited to, writing reports for submission in court proceedings, communication with legal counsel, or testimony in a court case. I understand that Ms. Thomas may refuse to participate in a legal case, including providing subpoenaed medical records, without a court order.

I/we have been provided a copy of the ICFE Privacy Policies, adopted by Ms. Thomas as an independent contractor of the ICFE, in compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, and have had the opportunity to have my/our questions about the management of private health information (PHI) answered.

Specific instructions for calls, texts, emails, or other communication: _____

Email, Texting, Online Platforms, and Applications

Your protected health information must be kept private and secure according to federal and state laws and professional ethics codes. Email and texting (as well as some online platforms and applications) are convenient ways to communicate for treatment purposes (such as discussing your current symptoms or concerns) and administrative purposes (such as appointment scheduling and billing). Reasonable means to protect the security and confidentiality of communications via email, texting, online platforms, and applications will be taken. However, it is impossible to guarantee the security and confidentiality of communication via email, texting, online platforms, and applications. Should confidential information be improperly disclosed, through no fault of mine or other ICFE clinicians, I am not liable for such disclosures.

Potential risks of communicating by email or text may include:

- Misdelivery of emails or texts to an incorrectly typed address or number.
- Email and online accounts and phones can be hacked.
- Email is easier to falsify than handwritten or signed documents.
- Backup copies of email, texts, and online platform or application data may exist even after the sender or the recipient has deleted his/her copy.
- Employers and on-line services have a right to archive and inspect emails, texts, online communications and application data transmitted through their systems.
- Information sent via emails, texts, online platforms, and applications can be intercepted, altered, forwarded, or used without authorization or detection.
- Emails, online platforms, and applications can be used to introduce viruses into computer systems.
- Emails, texts, and online platform and application data can be used as evidence in court.

All emails and texts to or from clients concerning diagnosis or treatment will be filed as part of the patient record. Since the information will be considered part of the record, other individuals authorized to access the record will also have access to those emails. Note that all email may be retained in the record of the system sending the email.

COMMUNICATION VIA EMAIL, TEXT, ONLINE PLATFORM, OR APPLICATION SHOULD NOT BE USED FOR MEDICAL EMERGENCIES.

You have the option of choosing whether to communicate with me via email, texting, online platforms and/ or applications and what information you wish to communicate. You do not have to consent to communication via email, texting, online platforms, or applications and communication can be handled in person or via phone call or mail. You may revoke any permission at any time in writing.

By consenting to communicate through email, text, online platform or application, you also agree to the following responsibilities:

- If you send a communication that requires or invites a response, and one is not given within a reasonable time frame, it is your responsibility to notify me that the communication was not received. You cannot assume that because it was not returned that it was received.
- It is your responsibility to schedule, confirm, reschedule, or cancel appointments.
- To the extent possible you should NOT use email, texting, online platforms, or applications to make disclosures about sensitive medical information such as: mental health treatment, drug, alcohol or substance abuse, information related to AIDS and HIV, and genetic information.
- It is your responsibility to inform me of any changes to your communication preferences including changes in mailing address, phone number, email address, or online account usernames.

Social Media

Requests to connect from current or former clients on social networking sites, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Pinterest, Google+ or other sites or apps, will not be accepted. Adding clients as friends on these sites and/or communicating via such sites is likely to compromise privacy and confidentiality. Please do not communicate with me via any social networking sites.

The ICFE has a professional Facebook page at www.Facebook.com/pages/Institute-for-Couple-and-Family-Enhancement. This account used to share general information related to mental health, parenting, romantic relationships, and couple or family therapy. If you choose to “like” our Facebook page we assume that you are making an informed decision about how this may compromise your confidentiality. The fan list on the ICFE Facebook page is public information and easily accessed by anyone on the internet. The vast majority of our followers are not clients; however, there is a small risk that you could be identified as a client simply based on your decision to follow our page.

Business Review Sites

I may have listings on Google Place, Yelp, or other similar online services which include options for users to rate their providers and add reviews. These listings are not requests for testimonials, ratings, or endorsement from you as a client. You have a right to express yourself on any site you wish. But due to confidentiality laws, I cannot respond to any review on any site whether it is positive or negative. And like blog comments and other online communications, there are privacy risks. Please sign below to confirm your acknowledgements of the risk or text, email, and other communication tools, as well as your consent to communicate with you in the means you indicated above.

I recognize that technology is ever-evolving and that electronic communications cannot be fully protected from unauthorized interception. Understanding the risks of electronic communication via email or texting, I have indicated my preferences and consent for communications.
